

Admins,

If you address crowds I have something you can do to lift spirits and give energy to the crowd at the beginning of your meeting and at the end. Perfect for church meetings, sport teams, sales meetings or any big gathering, Hell even a wedding.

Ask everyone to repeat after you three statements, loudly, if at first it's not loud say "I can't hear youuu"
Everyone say after me "We are Fantastic " Now tell them look into their friends eyes and say "you are Fantastic "
Now tell them to say in unison even louder "I am Fantastic"

You won't believe the energy. You will do it every time. Everyone wins.
